Servicing Your Customers with Advanced Technology

Scanco Service will give you access to a real-time view of inventory on your truck so you can service your jobs. It allows you to count your inventory, so you're prepared each day with the appropriate amount of goods.

The application is so smart that it uses GPS technology to allow you to see your fleet at any given time. And of course, it is built for the iOS and Android operating systems. You can expect nothing less from Scanco.
